

William Sappington being a brother of Sarah E. Sappington Whitehill, the deceased mother of said Nannie E. Whitehill.

- I. Sara S. Grumbine of Unionville, Carroll County, Maryland, daughter of William Sappington and Frances Baumgardner Sappington, his wife, both deceased, and the said William Sappington being a brother of Sarah E. Sappington Whitehill, the deceased mother of said Nannie E. Whitehill.
- J. Nancy Morgan Heyde Adams of Homewood Apartments, Charles and 31st Streets, Baltimore, Maryland, daughter of Susan Olivia Whitehill Heyde and George W. Heyde, her husband, both deceased, and the said Susan Olivia Whitehill being a sister of James C. Whitehill, the deceased father of said Nannie E. Whitehill.

III. That all of the above mentioned heirs-at-law and next-of-kin of the said Nannie E. Whitehill are above the age of 21 years and are sui juris with the exception of the said Nellie S. Russell, a mental incompetent, who is a patient at The Seton Institute, 6420 Reisterstown Road, Baltimore, Maryland.

IV. That the above described real estate is not susceptible of partition or division among the parties entitled to an interest therein, as above stated, without material loss or injury to them and that in order to make a division of said interests it will be necessary that all of the said real estate be sold and the proceeds thereof divided among the parties according to their respective rights and interests.

To the end, therefore,

- a. That a decree may be passed for the sale of said real estate.
- b. That the proceeds of said sale, after the payment of the costs and expenses incident thereto, may be distributed among your Oratrices and the Defendants, according to their respective rights and interests.
- c. That your Oratrices may have such other and further relief as the nature of their case may require.

And as in duty bound, etc.
